MIDSTREAM RIDGE LAERSKOOL PRIMARY EXCELLENTIA

From the Office

PATIENCE LOVE PEACE

After a year of hard work in every classroom, we have reached the final stretch of the year: the examinations – a time when every household settles into a new rhythm for the next two weeks.

Unfortunately, the word 'exam' often instils fear and discouragement, making us shudder, much like the hyenas in the original film, The Lion King, when they hear Mufasa's name.

A mark in an exam paper does not determine your worth as a person. It is simply a tool used to measure your knowledge and understanding. An exam is much like a term test, just a little longer and in a different setting. Is it really necessary to sacrifice our peace of mind? Absolutely not!

Learners, use your time wisely and study when necessary. A sense of calm and peace will then follow naturally. Dan Neff, a basketball coach, often reminded his team: "You play as you practise." The same principle applies when preparing for examinations.
Parents, feel free to take a few extra "patience pills" and continue encouraging and supporting your children.

May the fruit of the Spirit flourish in every household.
GALATIANS 5:22-23 (NIV)
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Kind regards

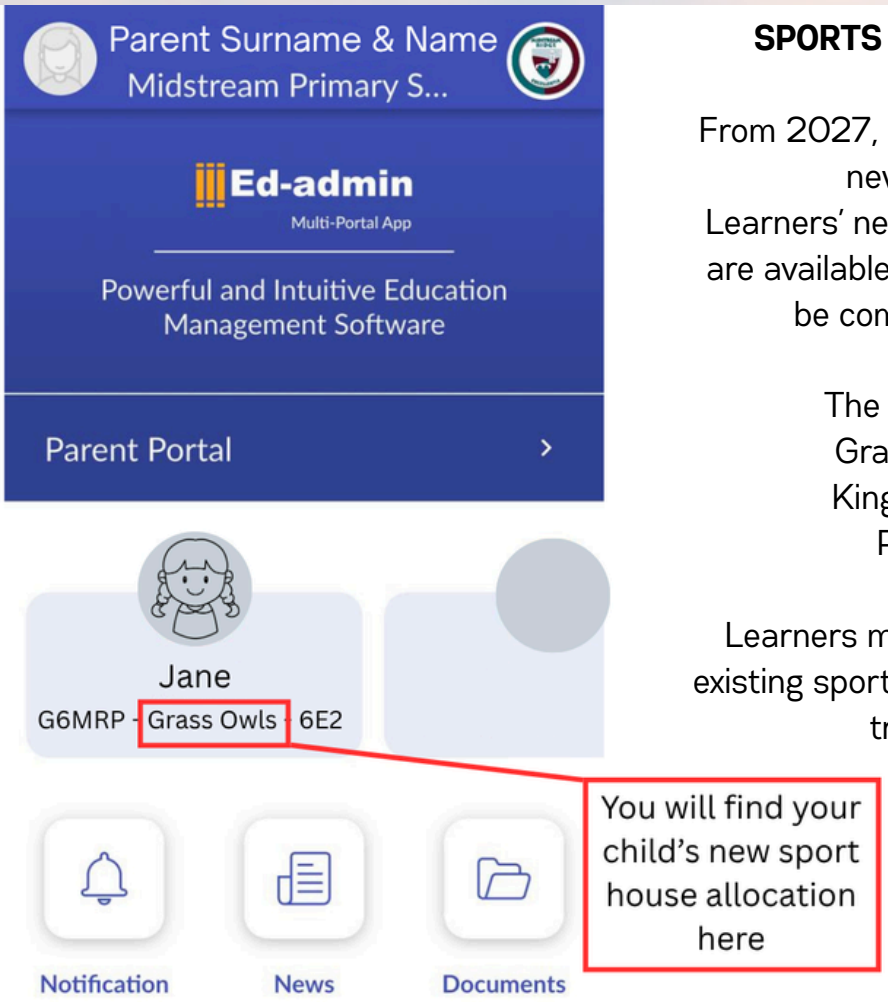
SCHOOL FEES 2027

It is not enough to win a war; it is more important to pursue peace.



SPORTS HOUSE ALLOCATIONS

From 2027, learners will be allocated to new sports houses.
Learners' new sports house allocations are available on the Edana app and will be communicated to them.

The sports houses are:
Grass Owls (maroon),
Kingfishers (teal) and
Plovers (white).

Learners may continue to wear their existing sports house T-shirts during the transition period.
