

Our fingerprints do not fade from the lives we touch.

From the Office

With the recent Teacher's Day in mind, we would like to share the following:

"You laugh, you cry, you work harder than you ever thought you could. Some days, you're trying to change the world, and some days you are really just trying to make it through the day. Your heart is full, and your mind is packed with memories of kids who have changed your life".

Thank you to every learner and parent who continuously touch our lives. That's what makes it all worthwhile!

We wish you all the best for the last term of the year.

Please note that learners who are absent during a test must provide the school with a doctor's note to write the scheduled Tuesday test, which they have missed.
